DELMAR STOLLER 1925-2013

PAULDING – Delmar Ray Stoller, age 88, passed into eternity Saturday evening, Dec. 21, at the Inpatient Hospice Center in Van Wert.

He was born at home April 12, 1925, the youngest son of Jacob and Bertha (Huber) Stoller. He and his three older brothers, Roy, Loren and William, were raised on the family farm due south of Briceton in Paulding County. At age 16, Delmar surrendered his heart to Jesus and was baptized Nov. 2, 1941 to become a member of the Apostolic Christian Church for 72 years. Upon graduation from Haviland-Scott High School in 1943, Delmar farmed with his dad, two brothers and uncle Albert Stoller, a deaf-mute who was an influential mentor for him. On Nov. 5, 1950, he married Marguerite Mary Gerber, daughter of Fred & Katherine (Kipfer) Gerber. Their marriage was blessed with four children, Ray, Rod, Mardel and Carol.

Early on, Delmar provided for his family via agriculture and a poultry farm, transitioning to a 30-year plant management career with Erie Haven Ready Mix plants in New Haven and Fort Wayne. He retired in 1989, remaining active with part-time work at Insource Technologies, Paulding, Custom Assembly, Haviland, and including 15 years at Publix Supermarket in Sarasota, Fla. His lifelong passion was living for Christ and supporting his Church in Latty and Sarasota, with an unrestrained love and commitment for his wife and family, coupled with firm loyalty and appreciation for his friends and country. He sincerely believed in the Bible principal of teaching his children the way that they should go, so that when they were old, they would not depart from it. Nothing gave him greater joy and purpose in life than to sing and hear the Gospel proclaimed in Word and song. His most valuable possession was his Faith and Hope in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Delmar is survived by his beloved wife of 63 years, Marguerite; his children, Ray (Carol) of Paulding, Rodney (LeAnn) of Van Wert, Mardel (Robert) Dotterer of Rittman, and Carol (William) Eisenmann of Woodburn; 15 grandchildren; 45 great-grandchildren; a sister-in-law, Helen Stoller; and many nieces, nephews and cousins of the Stoller/Huber, Gerber/Kipfer heritage.

Delmar was preceded in death by his parents; older brothers; and infant great-grandsons, Sage and Sawyer Pelfrey, whom he believed will be with Christ to welcome him into Heaven's Glory.

Funeral services will be conducted 10:30 a.m. Tuesday, Dec. 24 at Latty Apostolic Christian Church, Latty. Burial will follow in the Latty Apostolic Christian Church Cemetery. Den Herder Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Visitation will be 2-8 p.m. Monday, Dec. 23 at the Latty Apostolic Christian Church Fellowship Hall.

Donations may be made to Country Inn Enhanced Living Center, Paulding or the Inpatient Hospice Center, Van Wert.

Online condolences may be sent to www.denherderfh.com.

ROBERT FRIESNER 1938-2013

PLYMOUTH, Ind. – Robert Leonard Friesner, 75, passed away at 2:04 p.m. Wednesday, Dec. 11 at St. Joseph Regional Medical Center in Mishawaka.

Robert was born on July 16, 1938 in Middlepoint, Ohio, to Dwight and Datha (Fox) Friesner. He graduated from Van Del High School in 1956, while in high school he played both basketball and baseball. He then met and married his wife of 55 years, Barbara Joyce Rawlings. He attended Findlay College and after he received his degree, he began his teaching career, which lasted 39 years. He and Barbara Joyce spent their teaching years at West Noble in Ligonier, then moved to Lawrence Lake in Plymouth after they retired.

His years in the classroom teaching U.S. History gave him much joy, and he did a great job keeping student's attention. However, those less attentive students were brought back to his history world with a flying eraser. He spent his after-school hours coaching cross-country with the help of his wife for many years. He worked his runners hard and had high expectations. However, many fine young men came through his program, including a state cross-country champion and three state-qualifying teams. He also used his love of basketball to coach a team to a sectional championship. Robert also coached wrestling, track and taught driver's ed. He was also a member of the Lions Club and West Noble Classroom Teachers' Association and served on the Ligonier Library Board.

He is survived by his wife, Barbara Joyce; three daughters, Sherry Hughes, Deb (Larry) Miller and Kate (Josh) Harris; four grandchildren, Ryan, Tyler, Kalee and Maddie; brothers, Gerald (Mary) Friesner, Harold (Carrol) Friesner and Tom (Sharon) Friesner; and sisters-in-law, Ellen
